K-boys Week 8

Another great summer has come to an end, and we can't believe we're here again. It's time for school and sweatshirts and snow, but we will have all our memories of Camp that we won't let go.

This summer we saw puppet shows and magic shows and even a few plays. We never thought we would be ahead of those days. We learned how to swim and slide at Waterpark too. We were artistic in Arts and Crafts and on Zipline Course we zoomed.

As September inches closer, we are excited to start Kindergarten. A world of reading, math, and making new friends will have us excited once again.

Next summer we will return to make some great new memories of playing all day in the sun. We just cannot wait for 2K17 fun!
