Teen Boy's Week 7 Newsletter

Cannot believe that we are already only have ONE week left! This week was filled with some of our favorite trips of the summer and Color War activities. On Monday, we went to our favorite local amusement park where our campers loved the new Haunted Mansion and Turbulence. After Adventureland, we cooled down at Splish Splash on Tuesday and enjoyed the thrills of Bootlegger's Run and Hollywood Stunt Rider. On Wednesday, we had a day filled of Blue vs. Yellow Color War activities ending with the Bounce and Ooo La La Circus Arts Show. On Thursday, we climbed through the trees and zip lined at the Adventure Park of Long Island. We then ended the week back at camp and enjoyed the Kenwal Karnival.

To start week eight we will have a day full of activities at camp on Monday. On Tuesday, we will have our last late night of the summer as we go take our talents and see the bright lights of Broadway. Our campers are excited to see SpongeBob SquarePants the Musical. Please make sure the campers bring an extra pair of clothing to change into for the show and please check the Kenwal website for pickup times at the Melville Mall on 110. Ex: Polo shirt and khaki shorts. Wednesday is our last trip of the summer as we hop around at SkyZone. Thursday, we will watch the Kenwal Production and see some of our campers in the Wizard of Oz. We will then finish the week saying our goodbyes for the summer and enjoying a day back at camp.

A couple of pictures from this week.
